

ONLINE WORKSHOP on “Presenting 'Science' online”

Organized by

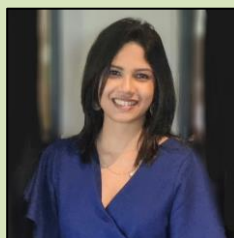

Organizing Committee of the 33rd Annual Congress of the PGIA

With conferences and other professional events being transitioned to virtual events in the new-normal situation, many professionals will need to get comfortable in virtual presenting that requires conscious adjustments to simulate the benefits of a live presentation. In this workshop, you will learn how to plan, craft, and deliver virtual presentations that will hold your audiences' attention and how to present your 'science' effectively.

Workshop Contents and Resource Persons

Through interactive sessions you will learn about:

- Knowing the ABC-XYZ of communication skills for your presentation.
- Using your 'gifted' voice to your benefit.
- Catching the audience with your 'Science' attractively.
- Presenting 'Science' online: Zoom and many more.
